

SHOAH - THE HOLOCAUST

The Holocaust was an unprecedented genocide that destroyed six million Jews, including two million children, in Europe between 1941 and 1945. The victims were murdered in gas chambers and by other means. The Holocaust was the darkest hour in Jewish history.

SPOTS OF LIGHT
TO BE A WOMAN IN THE HOLOCAUST

1

"Spots of light pressed into this dark matter..."

The Holocaust was an unprecedented genocide that destroyed six million Jews, including two million children, in Europe between 1941 and 1945. The victims were murdered in gas chambers and by other means. The Holocaust was the darkest hour in Jewish history.

2

LOVE

Love was a source and source of humanity in a world of chaos.

3

MOTHERHOOD

The most to part from children's personal accounts in the days of the Holocaust.

4

MOTHERHOOD

The most to part from children's personal accounts in the days of the Holocaust.

5

MOTHERHOOD

The most to part from children's personal accounts in the days of the Holocaust.

6

CARING FOR OTHERS

Women developed a range of initiatives during the Holocaust to help those most vulnerable.

7

CARING FOR OTHERS

Women developed a range of initiatives during the Holocaust to help those most vulnerable.

8

CARING FOR OTHERS

Women developed a range of initiatives during the Holocaust to help those most vulnerable.

9

WOMANHOOD

Promoting their femininity during the Holocaust allowed women to keep their humanity.

10

WOMANHOOD

Promoting their femininity during the Holocaust allowed women to keep their humanity.

11

RESISTANCE AND RESCUE

Women used their talents to distribute resources and resist oppression.

12

RESISTANCE AND RESCUE

Women used their talents to distribute resources and resist oppression.

13

FRIENDSHIP

Groups of friends became resistance fighters and saved lives.

14

FRIENDSHIP

Groups of friends became resistance fighters and saved lives.

15

FAITH

In the years of despair, women found comfort and moral strength in faith.

16

FAITH

In the years of despair, women found comfort and moral strength in faith.

17

FOOD

When the stomach is empty, the imagination feeds.

18

FOOD

When the stomach is empty, the imagination feeds.

19

ART

The creative is its antidote. To create is to escape the difficult daily reality.

20

ART

The creative is its antidote. To create is to escape the difficult daily reality.

21