

Holocaust replica suitcases

Museum quality aluminum replica suitcases displaying images and stories of the Holocaust. The suitcases ask the viewer a series of open questions to consider the impact of hate while encouraging them to stand-up against racism. The following images in this document are of the displays placed on tables in a school library. Some cases have a display area where books can be placed to provide more context.

Suitcase 1: Propaganda and racism

How did the Holocaust happen focusing on propaganda and hatred.

Suitcase 2: Hiding, rescue and liberation

The stories of Anne Frank, Righteous Among the Nations and Qld survivor George Stein

Suitcase 3: Shadows of Shoah

Featuring seven Queensland holocaust survivor stories set to music. (includes a Samsung tablet and built-in bluetooth speaker).

(limited availability) Suitcase 4: Camps

Features stories about the camps and profiles Qld survivor Zelig Berkhut and contains his original trousers work in a series of Nazi labour camps.

The content of these suitcases has generously been made possible with the support of Courage to Care, Jewish Holocaust Centre (Melbourne), Perry Trotter and Shadows of Shoah, Zelig Berkhut and family and Queensland Government funding.
